CANDLEMAS

SERVICE SHEET, BULLETIN & DIARY

In person worship in the Pershore Benefice has been suspended until further notice, this service will be recorded in advance and available to view on Sunday morning from 1030 on our YouTube channel and Facebook pages.

Please use this service sheet as an aid to worship at home.

A hymn sheet to accompany this service is available on Page 4

THE COLLECT

Almighty and ever-living God, clothed in majesty, whose beloved Son was this day presented in the Temple, in substance of our flesh: grant that we may be presented to you with pure and clean hearts, by your Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

FIRST READING

Malachi 3:1-5

A reading from the Book of Malachi

Thus says the Lord God: See, I am sending my messenger to prepare the way before me, and the Lord whom you seek will suddenly come to his temple. The messenger of the covenant in whom you delight – indeed, he is coming, says the Lord of hosts. But who can endure the day of his coming, and who can stand when he appears? For he is like a refiner's fire and like fullers' soap; he will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the descendants of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, until they present offerings to the Lord in righteousness. Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasing to the Lord as in the days of old and as in former years.

Then I will draw near to you for judgement; I will be swift to bear witness against the sorcerers, against the adulterers, against those who swear falsely, against those who oppress the hired workers in their wages, the widow, and the orphan, against those who thrust aside the alien, and do not fear me, says the Lord of hosts.

For the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

SECOND READING

Hebrews 2:14-18

A reading from the Letter to the Hebrews

Since the children share flesh and blood, Jesus himself likewise shared the same things, so that through death he might destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil, and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by the fear of death. For it is clear that he did not come to help angels, but the descendants of Abraham. Therefore he had to become like his brothers and sisters in every respect, so that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in the service of God, to make a sacrifice of atonement for the sins of the people. Because he himself was tested by what he suffered, he is able to help those who are being tested.

For the word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

THE GOSPEL

Luke 2: 22-40

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke

When the time came for their purification according to the law of Moses, Mary and Joseph brought Jesus up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord. (as it is written in the law of the Lord, ‘Every firstborn male shall be designated as holy to the Lord’), and they offered a sacrifice according to what is stated in the law of the Lord, ‘a pair of turtle-doves or two young pigeons.’

Now there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon; this man was righteous and devout, looking forward to the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit rested on him. It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death before he had seen the Lord’s Messiah. Guided by the Spirit, Simeon came into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him what was customary under the law, Simeon took him in his arms and praised God, saying,

‘Master, now you are dismissing your servant in peace, according to your word; for my eyes have seen your salvation, which you have prepared in the presence of all peoples, a light for revelation to the Gentiles and for glory to your people Israel.’

And the child’s father and mother were amazed at what was being said about him. Then Simeon blessed them and said to his mother Mary, ‘This child is destined for the falling and the rising of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be opposed so that the inner thoughts of many will be revealed – and a sword will pierce your own soul too.’

There was also a prophet, Anna the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was of a great age, having lived with her husband seven years after her marriage, then as a widow to the age of eighty-four. She never left the temple but worshipped there with fasting and prayer night and day. At that moment she came, and began to praise God and to speak about the child to all who were looking for the redemption of Jerusalem.

When they had finished everything required by the law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth. The child grew and became strong, filled with wisdom; and the favour of God was upon him.

This is the Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ.

REFLECTION BY REVD CLAIRE LORDING

On 20th January, Amanda Gorman, the American youth poet laureate, welcomed President Biden with the poem, 'The Hill We Climb'. She said, "We will rebuild, reconcile and recover in every known nook of our nation, in every corner called our country our people diverse and beautiful will emerge battered and beautiful. When day comes, we step out of the shade aflame and unafraid. The new dawn blooms as we free it. For there is always light. If only we're brave enough to see it. If only we're brave enough to be it."

Words for a fresh start presidency, words for all of us longing for the end of lockdown and restrictions. Words which are perfect for today as we celebrate Candlemas.

Jesus the light of the world is presented in the Temple, and with this simple action a whole new world and time is revealed. The light of Christ was always there, but we needed brave souls to tell us. The scene is nothing spectacular, it's completely ordinary. And yet it is Simeon and Anna who see the wonderfully extraordinary and are overcome with joy and expectation that nothing is ever going to be the same again. This child in Mary's arms is amazing, and his light reaches out to everyone in a way that defies cultural and religious barriers.

Simeon's joy that this child is for everyone, that the salvation he brings is for everyone, has echoed down the centuries in the Nunc Dimittis. A song shared at Evensong, when daylight fades and we need the reassurance that God's promises are true, that the light of the world, in every time and age, is bringing hope and joy, and the possibility of a new world and a new life.

This doesn't mean the way ahead is going to be easy. Jesus leaves the Temple and grows up into his journey of his passion and the cross. We have celebrated the joy of Jesus' holy light coming to be with us, we now turn and face the reality of Lent fast approaching and our journey to Christ's passion. But we take with us the knowledge that "there is always light". Whether it's a changing world scene, a world pandemic, a journey through Lent, Christ is there with us, shining his light that we might share it with others along the way. Amen.

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

Lord, you fulfilled the hope of Simeon and Anna, who lived to welcome the Messiah: may we, who have received these gifts beyond words, prepare to meet Christ Jesus when he comes to bring us to eternal life; for he is alive and reigns, now and for ever. Amen.

HYMN SHEET

HYMN 1

A&M 110

(Old 120th)

Hail to the Lord who comes,
comes to his temple gate,
not with his angel host,
not in his kingly state:
no shouts proclaim him nigh,
no crowds his coming wait.

But borne upon the throne of Mary's gentle breast, watched by her duteous love,
in her fond arms at rest;
thus to his Father's house
he comes, the heavenly guest.

There Joseph at her side in reverent wonder stands;
and, filled with holy joy,
old Simeon in his hands takes up the promised child, the glory of all lands.

Hail to the great First-born, whose ransom-price they pay,
the Son before all worlds,
the child of man to-day,
that he might ransom us who still in bondage lay.

O Light of all the earth,
thy children wait for thee:
come to thy temples here,
that we, from sin set free, before thy Father's face may all presented be.

[John Ellerton, 1826-1893]

Lord, the light of your love is shining in the midst of the darkness, shining;
Jesus, Light of the world, shine upon us,
Set us free by the truth You now bring us,
Shine on me, shine on me.

*Shine, Jesus, shine, fill this land with the Father's glory;
blaze, Spirit, blaze,
set our hearts on fire.
Flow, river, flow,
flood the nations with grace and mercy;
send forth your word Lord,
and let there be light.*

Lord, I come to Your awesome presence, from the shadows into Your radiance;
by the blood I may enter Your brightness, search me, try me, consume all my darkness,
shine on me, shine on me.

As we gaze on Your kingly brightness so our faces display Your likeness, ever changing from glory to glory,
mirrored here may our lives tell your story.
shine on me, shine on me.

[Graham Kendrick, b.1950]

| 1. Faithful vigil ended, watching, waiting cease;
Master, grant your servant
his discharge in peace. | 3. This your great deliverance sets your people free; Christ their light uplifted
all the nations see. |
| 2. All the Spirit promised,
all the Father willed,
now these eyes behold it perfectly fulfilled. | 4. Christ, your people's glory!
Watching, doubting cease:
grant to us your servants
our discharge in peace. |

[Timothy Dudley-Smith, b.1926]

MINISTRY AND CHURCH NEWS

ALL OF THE PERSHORE BENEFICE CHURCHES ARE NOW CLOSED FOR IN PERSON PUBLIC WORSHIP UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE

The Abbey will remain open for personal prayer only from 9:00 till 17:00 seven days a week. The Village Churches will also continue to open for personal prayer. See Page 12 for details.

We will continue to offer access to worship through our online service sheets and pre-recorded services for those of you who decide to stay at home during these difficult times.

WEEKLY COMPLINE ON ZOOM!: Don't forget to contact Claire for this week's Zoom link if you want to join us once again for this quiet and reflective service as we journey through the current lockdown at 1900 every Monday. Claire

NEW AREA DEAN: The Bishop has announced that the new Area Dean for Pershore and Evesham will be Sarah Dangerfield (our former Rural Dean!). Please remember Sarah in your thoughts and prayers as she takes up this new and demanding role in the life of our new deanery. Claire

CALLING YOUNG DISCIPLES PROJECT:

The Abbey PCC, after being approached by the diocese, agreed to engage a Mission Enabler from the Calling Young Disciples Project (CYD), who will hopefully start with us from September. This is a wonderful opportunity to develop our work with children and young people. Please click here to learn more about the project and the role of a Mission Enabler.

As part of the project we need to gather a group of people to form a local CYD group who will pray, plan and prepare alongside the Mission Enabler, so that any ideas or projects we have for our work with children and young people can be locally grounded and have the best chance of succeeding and continuing after the Mission Enabler moves on after a year. The group will need to be committed to meeting with the Mission Enabler so that plans can develop. There is also a project commitment that our group will meet with similar groups elsewhere in the diocese for learning hub weekends - a total of five weekends on 12-13 March 2021, 17-18 September 2021, 11-12 March 2022, 16-17 September 2022 and 18 March 2023. These hub weekends are vital for creating relationships between groups which give energy, inspiration and life to the overall project.

If you feel that this is a project that you would like to be involved with please contact Suzanne Clarke suzclarke@btinternet.com or me vicar@pershoreabbey.org.uk as soon as you can, and no later than 8th February. We'd love to hear from anyone who's interested from across the benefice. We need to let the diocese know if we can gather a group in time for the March hub weekend which will take place virtually on 12-13 March. Thank you. Claire and Suzanne

SARAH MARTIN: After thirteen years of loyal and faithful service as Secretary in the Benefice Office, Sarah is retiring on 19th March. Her warm and welcoming manner, as well as her ability to get things done, has been appreciated by us all and she will be very missed. If you would like to contribute to the leaving gift for Sarah, you can post cash or a cheque made out to Pershore Abbey PCC and placed in an envelope marked S. Martin Gift through the office door, or alternatively contact the office for BACS details. Thank you. Claire

BIBLE READING FELLOWSHIP: We will be ordering the next issue of Bible Reading Fellowship notes in early February, if anyone would like to start having them it works out at about £1 a month. We will be in touch with the regular users to check they want the same as previously and to arrange payment. Please let us know if you are interested or have any questions. Thank you Sue

WORDS AND PICTURES OF HOPE FROM THE IONA SERVICE: Thank you to all who joined and contributed in any way to the Iona service on Hope, especially those who were not able to join the service but were thinking of us. Some of the prayers, songs and photos that were shared during the service are available to view here. Helen

PATTERNS FOR KINGDOM LIVING - A NEW RESOURCE FOR A NEW YEAR: For many of us the sense of making a fresh start at the turn of a year will be stronger than usual at the end of 2020. With this in mind, a new recently developed, self-directed, “Patterns for Kingdom Living” resource is now available through the Diocese of Worcester website. You will find all the relevant links, including a 1 minute taster video, here: <https://www.cofe-worcester.org.uk/your-faith/kingdom-patterns/>

THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND INVITES YOU TO PRAY FOR OUR NATION:

In response to reaching the terrible milestone of 100,000 deaths from COVID-19, the Archbishops invite all to call on God in Prayer. Starting on 1 February we invite you to set aside time every evening to pray, particularly at 6pm each day. More than ever, this is a time when we need to love each other. Prayer is an expression of love. Click here to find out more: Prayer for the Nation

OTHER NEWS

ST ANDREW’S NEEDS A KEY!: Have you a shed type of key - one with a long shaft? If so, please email Robin Hancox at standrews@pershoreabbey.org.uk. Many thanks. Robin

CHURCH GIVING - GIVE.NET DONATION PAGE NOW LIVE:

We need your support now more than ever, so please consider giving through our dedicated give.net page, which offers secure regular or one-off payments from as little as £1. Click on the logo here or visit our website to donate. If you would prefer to set up a Standing Order, download the form here.

LENT 2021

ASH WEDNESDAY AND PALM CROSSES: A pre-recorded Ash Wednesday service will be available to view online through our YouTube channel and Facebook page on Ash Wednesday at 1900. Please post any crosses you have from last year through the Benefice Office letterbox, safely sealed in an envelope so that we can create the ash in the traditional way ready for this service. Many thanks. Claire

STATIONS OF THE CROSS DURING LENT: This quiet and reflective service which will last half an hour will be held every Monday, commencing on 22 February, at 1900 via Zoom. We will spend time with some of the stations of the cross each week, hopefully enabling us all to actively engage with the path of suffering walked by Jesus. Please contact me for more information and for the Zoom invitation for each week. Claire

THURSDAY LENT GROUP STARTING 25 FEBRUARY: This year we are offering a half an hour session every Thursday evening from 1900-1930 via Zoom, enabling us to reflect on the following Sunday's gospel reading. Sessions start on Thursday 25 February.

The format will be gentle; listening to the gospel passage, a period of silence and reading it through again to see what God might be saying to us. Some of us may then choose to share any insights that we have without comments; a question to prompt a brief discussion will follow. This will help us to deepen our love of God and his word, prepare ourselves to celebrate Easter and to have fellowship with one another.

We will only be able to run these groups if there are sufficient numbers, so in order to book a place on the first Zoom session, please email curate@pershoreabbey.org.uk by Monday 22 February at the latest. Steve

LENT BOOK READING GROUP - THY WILL BE DONE by Stephen Cherry: Are you interested in joining our Lent Book Group? We will be reading Stephen Cherry's book, which sets out to enliven our faith through study of the Lord's Prayer. The group will aim to read a chapter a week and at the end of the week readers will be asked to email comments, questions and insights to me to distribute among the group. Alma will need permission to use and share your email. Please email office@pershoreabbey.org.uk if you would like to join.

Providing insights from those who have used the Lord's Prayer throughout the centuries, the book explores how we can live its challenges and learn from its guidance, deepening our understanding of the prayer that holds us together as individuals and as a church.

The book is currently available to buy from Amazon at £7.38 but is also available from other book shops. Click here to go to Amazon and read the full review. Lent Book 2021

LENTEN LUNCHESES: As we are unlikely to be able to come together for Lenten Lunches this year, we are looking for simple recipes to share with our online community each Friday throughout Lent. Please email recipes to office@pershoreabbey.org.uk

#LIVE LENT 2021: The Church of England will be running its #LiveLent 2021 campaign from Ash Wednesday (17 February) to Easter Sunday (4 April) with six reflections for each week including a short passage from the Bible, a brief exploration of the reading, and a prayer.
